

Celtic Advanced Life Sciences
Innovation Network

www.calin.wales | www.calin.ie

CALIN is a €12million flagship Ireland-Wales INTERREG programme, offering businesses in Ireland and Wales open access to a unique strategic international partnership between six world-class universities, and Global Leaders Unilever and GE Healthcare.

27th & 28th March 2017

Eventbrite
CALIN @ Tyndall

The Tyndall National Institute hosts the launch of a unique networking & business development opportunity for life science businesses across Ireland and Wales

Project development meetings

CALIN Partner capabilities & technology platforms

Demonstrations & networking

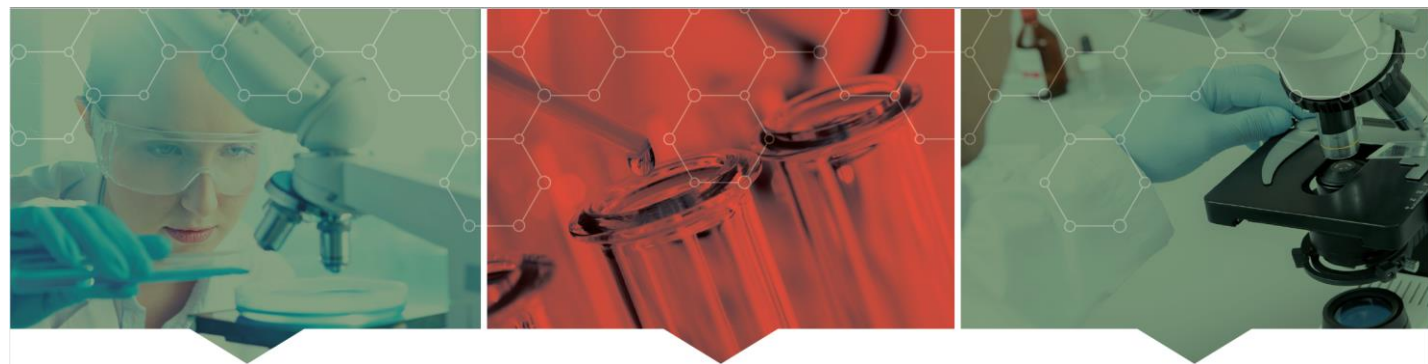

SME technology challenges & the CALIN opportunity

Tyndall National Institute tour

Lunch & buffet dinner included

 info@calin.ie  @CALIN_LifeSci  info@calin.wales

Celtic Advanced Life Sciences Innovation Network

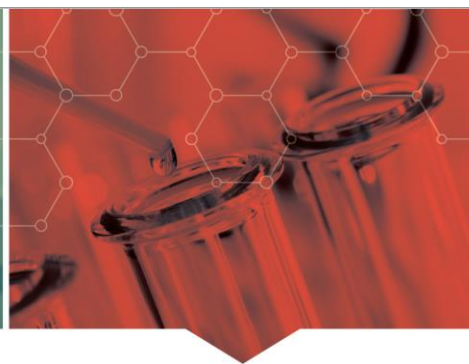

www.calin.wales | www.calin.ie

Monday 27th March

11:00 - 12:00	Registration, Tea/coffee, & networking
Opening Session
12:00 - 12:10	Tyndall welcoming comments Eoin O'Driscoll, Chairman and Acting Tyndall CEO, Tyndall National Institute
12:10 - 12:30	Opening address from CALIN coordinator Prof Shareen Doak, Professor of Genotoxicology & Cancer, Swansea University Medical School and Director of CALIN.
12:30 - 12:45	Irish Government representative
12:45 - 13:30	Lunch, demos & networking
Session 1
13:30 - 13:50	Emerging smart technologies for healthcare Dr Paul Galvin, Head of ICT for Health, Tyndall National Institute
13:50 - 14:10	Bangor University - Capabilities and the emerging biosensor network Dr. Christopher Gwenin, School of Chemistry, Bangor University
14:10 - 14:30	National University of Ireland, Galway technology platforms and capabilities Prof Frank Barry, Prof of Cellular Therapy, Regenerative Medicine Institute, National University of Ireland Galway
14:30 - 15:00	Health Innovation Hub Colman Casey, Director, Health Innovation Hub Ireland
15:00 - 16:00	1:1 project / proposal meetings
Sessions 2
16:00 - 16:10	Irish Guide Dogs for the Blind
16:10 - 16:20	Alcass Health Ltd
16:20 - 16:30	Carefolk Ltd
16:30 - 16:40	Thalman Health
16:40 - 16:50	FastForm Research Ltd
16:50 - 17:00	Intelligent Implants Ltd
17:00 - 17:40	Tea/coffee, demos, networking & tour of Tyndall
17:40 - 17:50	Valitacell Ltd.
17:50 - 18:00	PolyPico Ltd.
18:00 - 18:10	Avectas Ltd.
18:10 - 18:20	SiriusXT Ltd.
18:20 - 18:30	Company TBC
18:30 - 20:30	Buffet Dinner, demos & networking

Celtic Advanced Life Sciences Innovation Network

www.calin.wales | www.calin.ie

Tuesday 28th March

08:30 - 09:00	Registration, Tea/coffee, & networking
Session 3
09:00 - 09:20	Keynote TBD
09:20 - 09:40	Pharmaceutical Innovation Supporting the Life Science Sector. Prof Arwyn T Jones, Professor of Membrane Traffic and Drug Delivery, Cardiff School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences, Cardiff University
09:40 - 10:00	University College Dublin - technology platforms and capabilities Prof Ken Dawson, Director, Centre for BioNano Interactions, School of Chemistry, University College Dublin
10:00 - 10:20	Institute of Life Sciences - Advancing medical science through multi- and interdisciplinary research and innovation. Prof Steven Conlan, Professor of Molecular and Cell Biology, Director of Strategic Partnerships, Swansea University Medical School
10:20 - 11:20	1:1 proposal / project discussions
Session 4
11:20 - 11:30	Biosensia Ltd.
11:30 - 11:40	Atturo Ltd.
11:40 - 11:50	Marigot Ltd.
11:50 - 12:00	Perpetuus Carbon Technologies Ltd
12:00 - 12:10	Jellagen Pty
12:10 - 12:20	Latch Medical Ltd
12:20 - 12:30	Company TBC
12:30 - 13:00	CALIN model for industry – academic collaborations Gareth Healey, CALIN Project Manager, Swansea University
13:00 - 14:00	Lunch, demos & networking
14:00 - 16:00	1:1 proposal / project discussions

